PROFESSIONALS WORKSHOP: Person-Centered Planning Toolkit

Charting the LifeCourse

presented by Jane St John

Core Belief: All people have the right to live, love, work, play and pursue their life aspirations just as others do in their community.

Strategies for individuals and families of all abilities at any age and any stage of life

Learn how to support individuals & families develop a good life:

- ★ Think about what families, schools & agencies need to know to develop better support plans, transition plans, learning goals & IEPs
- ★ Explore the possibilities with individualized transition planning
- ★ Identify the supports needed to help individuals and families to live the lives they want to live
- ★ Learn to use person-centered planning tools to have more effective meetings with families and partners
- ★ Build a new vision of work, education, friends, fun and community inclusion

About our presenter: Jane St John supports families in the state of Missouri, to plan for quality adult lives for their sons and daughters with a developmental disability. She helped develop the LifeCourse planning tools to assist families to advocate with schools and service providers, and for sufficient funding.

Jane's adult son, Ben, has a developmental disability and special health care needs. She is a strong supporter of community inclusion and has worked closely in her community to promote inclusive practices.
